

Hacienda Riquelme

A Resort full of history

Built on what was one of the most important country estates in Murcia, this Resort has kept all the majesty and charm typical of places full of history.

It has been designed to create a lifestyle with a focus on freedom and nature, thanks to the incredible sensation of well-being which the surroundings provide. The well-laid out leafy avenues, the lush vegetation which blends in perfectly and the low density construction make this an ideal place to enjoy the exceptional Murcian climate.

Masterplan

Please note that the land where the extension of Hacienda Riquelme Golf Resort is projected is classified as land suitable for housing development according to the local regulations of the municipality of Torre Pacheco (Murcia). The corresponding 'Partial Plan', 'Infrastructure Programme', 'Allotment Project' and 'Urbanisation Project' have been definitively approved by the City Council of Murcia. Please do not hesitate to contact us for further information concerning the current forthcoming planning situation of the aforementioned lands. Partial Plan approved in a plenary session of the Murcia Town Council on 29th November, 2004.

Hacienda Riquelme

Frontline golf apartments

The Hacienda Riquelme Golf Resort apartments look out over the golf course and are all in keeping with the colonial style of the Riquelme family constructions.

These are apartments where you really feel the history of Murcia. Their original shape is seen to rise from among the lush vegetation which affords the complex a sensation of freshness and freedom.

The buildings are quite separate from each other and blend perfectly with the surrounding landscape. The open spaces and terraces create a special relationship between these properties and the environment.

These whitewashed apartments are aesthetically very pleasing and bring out the true character and majesty of the whole project. The well-distributed interiors, the terraces and the gardens allow for a close relationship with the surrounding countryside whilst at the same time preserving the privacy of their residents.

It is also possible to purchase a key ready property in Hacienda Riquelme; a property that is ready to move into today. This is an excellent option for homeowners who want to capitalise on their investment or to simply start enjoying the kind of quality of life that only this Resort can offer.
